Daylight Saving Time

On Sunday, November 2, we will finally get back the hour of sleep we lost in March. Set your clock back one hour and you'll be sure to arrive at church on time.

Holiday Schedule

Thanksgiving Dinner:

Every year, the Little Brown Church celebrates Thanksgiving on the preceding Sunday with a big dinner immediately following the worship service. This year that day is November 23. We'll pass around a sign-up sheet in November for the potluck. Or you can reply to this email with your intention to attend and what you'll bring. Typically, we serve turkey, ham, all the usual side dishes, dessert, and an array of beverages. Everyone is welcome, whether bringing food or not!

Decorating the church:

On Sunday, December 7, we will decorate our beautiful sanctuary with a Christmas tree, greenery, wreaths, and the manger scene. Please stay after church to help. Refreshments will be served.

Adopt-a-Family:

Let Barbara know at church or by responding to this newsletter if you want to participate in this year's Adopt-a-Family charity. We will need gift shoppers and also cash donations to purchase food for the families.

Christmas Eve:

We will hold our traditional candlelit Christmas Eve Service on Wednesday, December 24.

Wedding bells

Pastor Mary is willing to travel long distances to preside over marriage ceremonies for our members – including Nebraska for Laura Haley and Southern California for Sean Haley. This year she only had to drive to Saratoga, in the Santa Cruz Mountains, to help Mary Chambers and Leo Kim tie the knot in September.
